CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

—OF THE—

Jackson County Medical Society

OF THE

STATE OF MISSOURI

---

CONSTITUTION.

---

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This society shall be known as "The Jackson County Medical Society of the State of Missouri."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS.

The objects of this Society shall be to promote the increase and diffusion of knowledge in the science and art of Medicine, Surgery and Hygiene, and to facilitate and harmonize the intercourse of the medical profession of this county.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION I. The members of this society shall consist of such regular practitioners of medicine residing in this county as may be elected and qualified as directed by the by-laws.

SEC. 2. Regular physicians who are now residents of this county, or graduates of medicine who reside in this county and have retired from practice, may be elected to honorary membership.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. The officers of this Society shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Librarian and a Membership Committee consisting of three members, all of whom shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting and hold their office for one year, and until their successors are elected and installed.

SEC. 2. They shall respectively perform such duties as may be required of them by the by-laws and resolutions of this Society.

ARTICLE V.

MEETINGS.

SEC. 1. One regular meeting shall be held each month, at such time and place as may be directed by the by-laws.

SEC. 2. Special meetings may be held as provided by the by-laws.

ARTICLE VI.*FUNDS.

SEC. 1. The funds of this Society shall consist of the initiation fees, annual dues, assessments, fines and donations.

SEC. 2. No appropriation of money from the treasury, or disposition of any property of the Society shall be made at other than a regular meeting.

ARTICLE VII.*PUNISHMENTS.

Any member may be fined, suspended, expelled or otherwise punished as provided for in the by-laws, but no member shall be suspended or expelled except at a regular meeting and upon written charges, signed by a member of this Society, and after having been duly notified by the Secretary of the nature of the charges and of the time and place of trial.

ARTICLE VIII.*CODE OF ETHICS.

The Code of Ethics of this Society shall be the Code adopted by the American Medical Association.

ARTICLE IX.*AMENDMENTS.

An amendment to or an alteration of this constitution must be submitted in full, in writing, at a regular meeting, and shall be spread upon the minutes. At the next regular meeting it may be taken up and acted upon, and if the proposed amendment, or the substance thereof receives the votes of at least three fourths of the members present it shall be adopted.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. The candidate must be a respectable practitioner of medicine, must have a good moral character, and be a graduate of a medical college in recognized good standing. He shall have been a resident of this county for a period of one year prior to his application. Satisfactory proof of these qualifications must be furnished the Membership Committee.

SEC. 2. The application, accompanied by the initiation fee, must be made out in the following form, viz.:

1. Name in full, with office and residence address.
2. Length of time a resident of the county.
3. Date of graduation and at what college.
4. Of what medical societies already a member in good standing.
5. Applicant's signature.
6. Names of at least two members of this Society recommending the applicant.

SEC. 3. After having been read before the Society, all applications shall be referred to the Committee on Membership, which shall make report thereon not earlier than one month thereafter.

SEC. 4. An application having been reported upon by the Membership Committee the Society shall, without discussion, proceed to take a vote upon it by ballot. Except when any objection is raised against the report of the Committee on Membership, it shall then be referred to the Judicial Council without discussion, who shall finally report to the Society, when, as before, without discussion, a ballot shall be taken. If two-thirds of the votes cast are favorable to the applicant he shall be declared elected, and, upon signing the constitution, shall be admitted to full membership.

ARTICLE II.

OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. The terms of service of the officers shall commence at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

SEC. 2. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Society, appoint all committees not otherwise provided for, sign all orders upon the Treasurer for the payment of money when authorized by the Society to do so, and perform such other duties as the Society or parliamentary usage may require of him. At the first regular meeting he shall deliver an address upon some appropriate subject.

SEC. 3. The Vice-President shall preside in the absence of the President. He shall be chairman ex-officio of the Judicial Committee or Council, and also a member of the Programme Committee.

SEC. 4. The Secretary shall keep a correct record of the proceedings of the Society. He shall have charge of, and carefully preserve, all books of record, papers and pother proerty of the Society; keep a list of the members, with their P. O. addres; notify new members of their election; conduct the correspondence; attest all orders drawn upon the Treasurer by order of the Society; make a report of the condition of the Society at each annual meeting, and discharge such other duties as may be required of him.

SEC. 5. The Treasurer shall have charge of the funds of the Society, collect all fees, dues and fines promptly, giving a receipt therefor, and recording and retaining a duplicate of the same on a stub. He shall also report the receipts to the Secretary at each regular meeting. He shall deposit all funds belonging to the Society in a bank, to the credit of himself as Treasurer of the Society. At the close of his term he shall deliver to each member a statement of the member's indebtedness to the Society, and report to the Judicial Council the names of all members in arrears for dues for a period of three years or more. He shall pay out moneys only on orders signed by the President and attested by the Secretary. At each annual meeting he shall submit a detailed report of the exact condition of the Treasury, and at the close of his term deliver to his successor all moneys and other property in his possession belonging to his office.

ARTICLE III.

COMMITTEES.

SEC. 1. At each annual meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the President shall appoint a Judicial Council and a Committee on Nomenclature.

SEC. 2. The Judicial Council shall consist of the Vice President, as chairman, and four appointive members. These four appointive members shall each have had not less than ten years experience in the practice of medicine, and have been a resident of this county for five years. They shall serve for a term of four years, except that in the first Council appointed under this provision one member shall be appointed to serve until the annual meeting in 1889, one member to serve until the annual meeting in 1890, one member to serve until the annual meeting in 1891 and one member to serve until the annual meeting in 1892, thereafter one member shall be appointed each year. They shall investigate all charges brought against members of this Society for violation of the constitution or by-laws, or code of ethics, which may be referred to them by the Society. They shall determine the guilt or innocence of the accused. Should they find that the charges in any given case are sustained, they shall further determine the penalty to be inflicted. Their report to the Society shall be signed by at least three members, which report shall only state the guilt or innocence of the accused, and, in case of guilt, a recommendation as to the penalty.

SEC. 3. The Programme Committee shall consist of the President, Vice-President and Secretary. It shall be the duty of this committee to direct the scientific work of the Society, appoint members to read papers, report cases, present pathological specimens, or anything of scientific interest to the Society.

SEC. 4. The Necrological Committee shall consist of three members, who shall serve until the ensuing annual meeting. They shall make appropriate report of deceased members.

ARTICLE IV.

FUNDS.

SEC. 1. The initiation fee shall be five dollars, and each member shall pay one dollar dues, annually. Assessments may be made at any regular meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

SEC. 2. Any member neglecting to pay his dues for a period of three years shall be notified by the Judicial Council to appear before them to show just cause why his name should not be dropped from the roll, and failing in this, on report of the Council his name shall be stricken from the roll.

ARTICLE V.

PENALTIES.

SEC. 1. The penalty for a violation of the constitution, by laws or code of ethics shall be reprimand, fine, suspension or expulsion.

SEC. 2. An affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present, and a compliance with Article VII of the constitution, shall be necessary for suspension or expulsion.

ARTICLE VI.

MEETINGS.

SEC. 1. The regular meetings of this Society shall be held in Kansas City, Missouri, on the second Thursday evening of each month, and the annual meeting on the second Thursday evening in October.

SEC. 2. Notice must be given by the Secretary to each member of the time and place of meeting.

SEC. 3. Special meetings may be called by the President on the written request of three members, the Secretary giving due notice to each member of the time, place and objects of the meeting, but no business other than that designated in the call shall be transacted.

SEC. 4. Parliamentary usage shall govern in the transaction of business, when not otherwise provided for.

ARTICLE VII.

QUORUM.

Seven members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VIII.

These by-laws may be suspended or amended at any regular meeting by a resolution submitted in writing, and receiving a two-thirds majority vote of the members present.
